Why am I being charged for Total adblock?

Get clarity on why you are 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) seeing charges from Total Adblock, even if you 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) don't remember signing up. This is a 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) very common question, and the 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) answer usually comes down to the subscription model and auto-renewal.

Why You Are 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) Being Charged

The most likely 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) reason is that you signed up for a 7-day free trial of the premium version, which automatically converts to 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) a paid subscription unless you cancel before the trial ends . After the 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) initial term, your plan 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) renews at the regular annual rate, which is 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) significantly higher than the first-year promotional price .

Step-by-Step 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) Guide to Stopping Charges

1. Identify Your Purchase 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) Source: The cancellation method 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) depends on where you bought it .
2. Cancel 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) Auto-Renewal:
    - Direct 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) Purchase: Log into your online 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) portal, go to "My

1→(888)→(434)→(8681) Subscriptions," and turn off 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) auto-renewal .

- App Store 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) (iOS/Android): You must cancel directly 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) through your Apple or Google Play Store subscription settings .

3. Request a Refund1→(888)→(434)→(8681) (If Eligible): Turning off auto-renewal 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) stops future charges but does not automatically give you a refund . You must submit a 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) separate refund request.
    - You are eligible if 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) you request within 30 days of starting an annual plan or 14 days for a monthly plan .

For 1→(888)→(434)→(8681)assistance, you can call 1→(888)→(434)→(8681).

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Why is the renewal charge so much higher?
A: The first-year price1→(888)→(434)→(8681) is a promotional rate. The service 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) automatically renews at its standard, higher rate 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) for the next term .

Q: I don't use the service. Can I get a refund?
A: Yes, if you are within 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) the 30-day (annual) or 14-day (monthly) refund window. You must actively request a refund, as it 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) is not automatic .

Q: I canceled, why was I still charged?
A: Cancellation 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) requests must be made before the renewal date. If you 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) canceled after the renewal processed, that charge may be non-refundable unless you are 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) within the grace period.

Q: Will canceling auto-renewal give me a refund?

A: No. Canceling only stops 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) future charges. You must separately 1→(888)→(434)→(8681) request a refund for a prior charge .